Learn From The Ground Up

Put the "pleasure" back in your trail rides by first creating a calm and trusting relationship on the ground. This clinic combines Heidi's holistic horsemanship practice with the principals of Centered Riding.

Learn how this "Mind-Body-Horse" approach applies to the human, the horse on the ground and then the horse under saddle.

Clinic Format

- ❖ Interactive workshops to improve mindfulness and self-awareness
- ❖ Study of equine communication and behavior to enhance understanding
- ❖ In-hand application
- ❖ Mounted sessions in the arena and then out on the trail for those who are ready.
