

2018 Creating Harmony with Horse Speak Clinic

Clinicians: Sharon Wilsie & Heidi Potter

New England Center for Horsemanship-Guilford, VT

An Inspirational & Educational Equine Experience! June 29-July 1, 2018

Open your mind and heart to discover the true language of the horse.

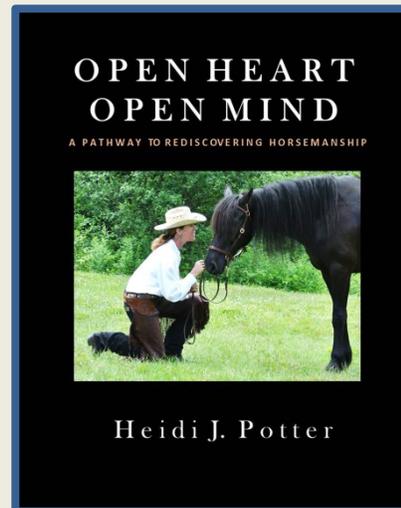

If you are looking for a deeper connection with horses which is based on understanding and trust, then this clinic is for you. Join Heidi & Sharon as they take you on a journey of what natural communication with a horse really looks like and how you can join in the conversation.

Create more peaceful, safe and enjoyable interactions by gaining a deeper understanding of yourself and learning what the horse truly needs from you.

This clinic includes herd observation, workshops, interactive exercises and hands-on application. Find the missing link in your horsemanship. It will rock your world!

Horses Provided!

Limited Space~~Auditing Available
$450 Early Bird Rate by 5/15/18
Contact Host: Heidi Potter 802-380-3268 or
Heidi@heidipotter.com

Discover what's needed to create more safe, trusting and enjoyable partnerships.

Discover what it means to just "be" with a horse and then wait for the magic to happen.....

Learn the true language of Equus, how to read and respond.

See into the window of their soul and learn what they really need from you.

Meet the Clinicians

Sharon Wilsie has enjoyed a professional career as a horse trainer/rehabilitator, intercollegiate coach, and riding instructor. Her love for horses has been life-long. She is also a Reiki Master and has developed and implemented several programs over the last decade specializing in alternative training and rehabilitation methods for difficult horses and horses with PTSD. www.wilsiewayhorsemanship.com

Heidi Potter is an internationally known and respected Trainer, Centered Riding® Clinician and Instructor who specializes in improving relationships between horses and humans using compassion, understanding, patience, and praise. Ms. Potter teaches a wide variety of training and riding clinics at her Southern Vermont facility, The New England Center for Horsemanship and abroad. www.heidipotter.com